

Army and Navy Foot ball Game
Draws Vast Service
Crowd

West Point cadets marching into the Polo Grounds to witness the annual clash with the Naval Academy eleven. Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

The confident midshipmen marching toward their section of the stand at the Annapolis-West Point game, November 27. Photo International.

Close-up of one of the many bitter line scrimmages that marked the Army-Navy game this year, Annapolis winning, 7 to 0. Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

The most decorated private in the Marine Corps is John Kelly, 19 years old. Lieut. Commander Eugene E. Wilson of the Great Lakes Naval Training Station is pinning on the Congressional Medal of Honor, his seventh medal. Photo International.

The new Surgeon-General of the navy, Admiral Edward Rhodes Stitt, who succeeds Admiral Braisted, retired. He is an authority on tropical diseases. Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

Photo, International.

One of many groups of notable persons at the Army-Navy football game. Left to right: The Secretary of War, Gen. Nivelle of the French army, Gen. Pershing, the Assistant Secretary of War and Gen. Peyton C. March.

The Chafing-dish Supper

The hour is late—the milk is sour,
What can be done at such an hour?
The friend in need, the friend indeed,
The milk that always takes the lead
Stands ready on the pantry rack
The name it bears is Krystalak.

The cost is low, the flavor fine,
It beats the milkman every time,
Whether rarebit or clam soup it be,
Cafe-au-lait, cocoa, or tea,
The lips of all do fairly smack
At food so made with Krystalak.

KRYSTALAK is pure, sweet skimmed milk, with the water removed. Skimmed milk is recommended by the foremost physicians, dietitians and U. S. Government Food Bulletins because it is economical. It contains all the food value of the whole milk except the fat, which is supplied by the butter and meats in your daily diet. Add water and Krystalak dissolves instantly. No troublesome lumps form. No egg beater required.

Keep a supply of Krystalak on hand. Ask for the moisture-proof, blue and white striped pound package, which makes 5 quarts and requires no ice.

BUY IT TO-DAY AT YOUR GROCER'S
If your grocer does not keep Krystalak, write for a trial package, enclosing his name and 10c. in stamps or coin to cover mailing.

KRYSTALAK
Dry Skimmed Milk
Best for all cooking

The Dry Milk Company
15 Park Row, New York City.

